

Astronomy Clubs Reach 4 Million Visitors

NASA Night Sky Network amateur astronomy clubs do extensive outreach in their communities across the country – from star parties and community events to astronomy lectures and more.

Since 2004, member clubs have reported more than 36,000 events and just reached the milestone of

4 million people directly interacting with NASA resources

SIU Carbondale amateur astronomers draw a crowd for a lunar eclipse

Lowcountry Astronomers bring NASA to the Charleston STEM Festival in SC

There are an average of 22 astronomy club events per day across the US. Find your local astronomy club and events here: nightsky.jpl.nasa.gov

Night Sky Network

Astronomy Clubs bringing the wonders of the universe to the public