

Preparing for the Great American Total Eclipse 2017

- The University of Colorado's Fiske Planetarium, with support from NASA and the Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation, produced a video on how to safely watch the upcoming Aug. 21, 2017 Total Eclipse of the sun
- It was distributed to 5,000 libraries all over the US, as well as to planetariums, along with 2,000,000 safe eclipse-watching glasses
