

National Aeronautics and Space Administration

A vibrant space-themed background featuring a large, bright yellow sun in the center. Surrounding it are various celestial bodies: a blue and white Earth in the lower left, a grey moon, a brown Jupiter, a ringed Saturn, and a blue Uranus. A glowing orange comet streaks across the scene. The background is filled with numerous small, distant stars.

SCIENCE MISSION DIRECTORATE

Anne Holland
NASA@ My Library/Space Science Institute

June 28, 2017

NASA@ My Library Participates in the American Library Association Conference

- The NASA@ My Library team joined the NASA booth this year. Over 800 people provided their contact information to receive follow ups, and we estimate 4,000 people visited the booth to talk to NASA representatives, and view Hyperwall Presentations.
- Between NASA@ My Library and the Heliophysics team, over 10,000 eclipse glasses were distributed!
- NASA@ My Library team members presented 2 sessions on the Hyperwall (with approximately 80 total participants)
- NASA@ My Library team members also presented 2 conference sessions (Daytime Astronomy at Your Library, and High Impact STEM Events) drawing approximately 130 participants

For more information contact:
Anne Holland: aholland@spacescience.org
Keliann LaConte: klaconte@spacescience.org